NEWS RELEASE

March 27, 2007

JOSEPH SOLIZ APPOINTED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

EnerGulf Resources Inc. (TSX-V: ENG) is pleased to announce that Mr. Joseph Soliz has been appointed to the Company's Board of Directors.

Mr. Soliz, of Houston, Texas practices U.S. and International oil, gas and mineral law. He served as Senior Council to the midstream-downstream petroleum unit at El Paso Corporation (NYSE:EP) from 2001 to 2004. Mr. Soliz was a partner with the Houston law firm, Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams & Martin where he practiced in the firm's Energy, Environmental and Natural Resources section for approximately ten years. Prior to that he served as legal counsel to Gulf Oil Corporation's exploration and production unit.

Mr. Soliz obtained a J.D. degree from Harvard Law School in 1979 and was admitted the same year to the State Bar of Texas. He is certified in Oil, Gas and Mineral Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and has taught Oil, Gas and Mineral Law as an adjunct professor at the South Texas College of Law.

Commenting on the addition of Mr. Soliz to the Board, Chairman of the Board, Jeff Greenblum said, "Joe Soliz has worked closely with EnerGulf as an advisor on international legal matters, and as our current projects are progressing to an operational phase, his experience and reputation in the international oil and gas arena will serve our company well. We are very pleased to welcome him as a member of the Board".
